

191—104.2(523A,82GA,SF559) Proof of completion of continuing education requirements. A sales agent is required to maintain a record of all continuing education courses completed by keeping the original certificates of completion and a description and outline of the course attended for four years.